Iran Divestment Bill

As The Journal's recent articles point out, there is widespread support for legislation — of which I am a co-author — that would require California's pension funds to divest from companies doing business with Iran's energy sector, AB 221 ("Jews, Muslims Unite Behind Iran Divestment Bill," April 27).

When the bill came before us in the Assembly Judiciary Committee, however, one of AB 221's principal opponents argued that the sanction of divestiture should be reserved for "extreme" situations. If exporting terror throughout the most volatile region in the world and threatening to annihilate Israel (while seeking nuclear capability) do not constitute an extreme situation, I don't know what does.
